

CHILTERN IS A NOMINEE ON THE SCRIP CRO OF THE YEAR AWARD SHORTLIST

London, October 28, 2008: Chiltern, a leading global clinical research organization, announced that it is a nominee on this year's shortlist for the SCRIP Awards in the "Best Contract Research Organization" category. The winners will be announced at the fourth annual SCRIP awards ceremony on December 10, at the London Hilton on Park Lane.

"I am delighted that Chiltern made the shortlist for this esteemed award," commented Glenn Kerkhof, Chiltern's CEO. "This nomination provides recognition for the overall achievements that Chiltern and its employees have accomplished during this past year."

The SCRIP awards comprise 13 categories, and an independent panel of industry experts reviews the categories most relevant to their expertise ensuring objectivity and credibility. The "Best Contract Research Organization" category looks at six criteria ranging from exceeding sponsor expectations to the incorporation of novel technologies.
